Dear Parent/Carer,

Re: Sixth Form "Mock Exams Week"

I am sure you are aware that all of our sixth form students will be sitting mock exams next week and I am now writing to confirm the arrangements for that week. Your daughter should have already received her timetable.

We think that the mock exams will allow students and teachers to make accurate assessments of performance so far this year, so that we can then prepare appropriately for the summer examinations. In order to make the exams as much like the real thing as possible, we are allowing girls to have study leave between Monday 3rd December and Wednesday 5th December. Regular lessons will resume on Thursday 6th December, although some students will have examinations on that day. This means that between Monday and Wednesday, your daughter need only come into school when she has an examination.

Of course if students wish to come into school to revise, they are welcome to do so. During study leave, the library, the sixth form study room and the common room will all be open. Students will not be allowed to come and go during lesson times. Our expectation is that they may enter or leave only at break, lunch or after school, and that they sign in and out at reception.

We anticipate that students will receive their results in a special sixth form assembly on Friday 11th January.

I am sure you will stress to your daughter the importance of these examinations in preparing for the actual examinations in the summer. If there are any aspects of the matter that you wish to discuss, please do not hesitate to contact me.

May I take this opportunity to wish you and your family a happy and peaceful Christmas.

Yours sincerely,

Mr J Breslin
Head of Sixth Form
